My apologies to Kaylene Richardson who has been listed as a councillor in previous newsletters—she has not re nominated for council—sorry Kaylene.

Last Day of Term 1

The School Captains, Hamish and Tyler, have organised an action packed day for the last day of term. Students are asked to come dressed in an Easter Theme. There will be lots of games, Easter Egg Hunt, Letter Hunt, Colouring Competition and maybe a movie if we have time. Students will be able to order shop lunches if they wish. Mrs Stone and students have been busy in the art room making Easter Bonnets for the parade which will be held at 2.15 prior to the end of school (parents are encouraged to come to the parade). School will finish at 2.30pm.

Prep Checks Tuesday 17th March

The School Nurse will be at school tomorrow morning to conduct the Prep Checks.

Interschool Swimming—Lodden Mallee Swimming Carnival

This swimming carnival is to be held in Swan Hill tomorrow the 17th March commencing at 1pm. Tyler, Samuel, Indie, Caleb and Jack will be representing Underbool in the UDSSA team along with students from Ouyen, Tempy and Murrayville. This is a wonderful achievement by our students and they should all be very proud of their efforts in qualifying for this carnival. Well done everyone and good luck for tomorrow.

Please make sure you take the program that was sent home last week. The Swan Hill Memorial Swimming Pool is near the bridge.
