National Simultaneous Reading Day

Wednesday 24th May is “National Simultaneous Reading Day and all schools throughout the country will be reading the exact same story (The Cow Tripped Over The Moon) at 11 am. This is a national initiative to promote reading.

Homework Idea For This Week

Maybe parents could teach the students in the lower year levels how to tie their shoe laces. We have noticed there are a lot of students who are running around with laces undone and this is a safety issue.

Hot Lunches

Could parents PLEASE make sure that food items for the pie warmer are CLEARLY NAMED WITH A TEXTA THAT DOESN'T RUB OFF! This simple request will make lunch time a lot easier. Thank you in anticipation.

School Jackets

An alternative to the present school zip up jacket was discussed at the last P & F Meeting. It was felt that the fleecy alternative seemed to be much warmer. We are sending home an order form with the newsletter today for the alternative fleecy jackets and if there is enough interest we will place a bulk order. These are available from Country Clothing at an approximate cost of $30 each—logo included. Please return these forms by Friday of this week.

Homework

Thank you to Eleanor, Jess and McKenzie for sharing their Lego construction with us. Well done girls!
