Student Leadership— Sport Shed Awards 2018

These were presented by the student leaders on Friday. Well done to the kids who were recognised for their efforts in putting sports equipment away and being of assistance to others. It was noted that there has been a significant increase in students being responsible and packing away sports equipment they have used during recess and lunch times. Well done kids!!

Chaplain Chats

Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail. Ralph Waldo Emerson

True rewards come to those who are willing to forge their own paths and do not compromise who they are. There is also a comforting solitude in discovering your own path, gaining your own strength and self awareness as you travel. May you all find your own paths and the courage to be uncompromisingly, you.
