Wellbeing - Jar of Awesome (Positive Reflection)

The Jar of Awesome is an activity you can do as a family to build positive habits in your life. How it works:

- Find a jar and label it THE JAR OF AWESOME
 - At the end of the day, write down on a small piece of paper something that happened during the day that was awesome, no matter how big or small
 - Place the piece of paper in your JAR OF AWESOME
 - When you are feeling down or uncreative or whatever it might be, go back through the JAR OF AWESOME and read over the piece of paper.
- Why the Jar of Awesome?

The Jar of Awesome is a really easy habit to create. It allows you and your children to feel good about yourself/themselves and to feel happy. When you feel good about yourself, you are more creative and are able to focus, therefore producing at a more optimum level. Simple positive habit forming activities are so important to teach children, but just as important for adults. When we practice positive habits such as gratitude, kindness, positive reflection (Jar of Awesome) and optimism we tend to:

- Cope better with stress and trauma
- Have more friends and social support
- Are more productive and creative at school & work
- Are better leaders and negotiators
- Are less depressed and anxious

(resource from Growing with Gratitude) Or simply ask your child/children what went well for you today?

TODAY

you are you,
that is truer than true.

There is NO ONE ALIVE
who is youer
than YOU!
